

TOPIC 1. THE DECLINE OF THE HOUSE OF ROCKEFELLER.

1 Beter traced the power of John D. III, Nelson, Laurance and David Rockefeller to oil, finance and international alliances.

He portrayed four brothers at the center of a dynasty.

2 He alleged that war and Saudi oil profits had expanded their worldwide influence.

This was his interpretation of the family's rise.

3 He recalled his 1976 meeting with General Brown during the alleged underwater missile crisis.

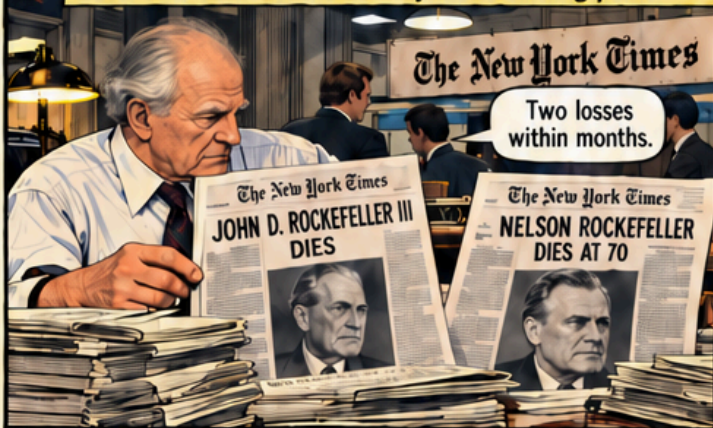

He believed a chance to halt escalation had been lost.

4 He described the alleged Harvest Moon battle and Soviet space weapons as a reversal of Rockefeller plans.

His account of a secret space conflict.

5 John D. III died in 1978; Nelson died on January 26, 1979. Beter saw their deaths as a dynastic turning point.

Two losses within months.

6 He focused on changing accounts of Nelson's final hours, the location and the emergency call.

What did the conflicting reports mean?

7 The public account cited a heart attack; Beter instead alleged murder and interpreted cremation as concealment.

His murder allegation is not established history.

8 He speculated that Henry Kissinger might gain a stronger place beside the surviving brothers.

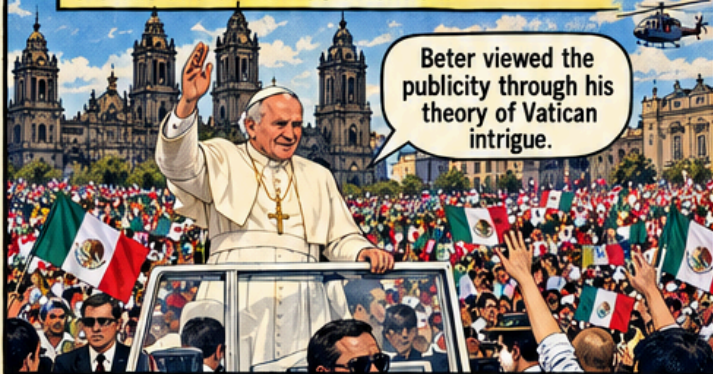

A forecast about power after Nelson's death.

TOPIC 2. THE BOLSHEVIK PLOT FOR A POPE'S REVOLUTION.

1 The Pope's January visit to Mexico drew huge crowds and worldwide attention.

2 He repeated his claim that John Paul II had been replaced by an actor.

3 He said priests had written to him with fears about hidden political influence within the Church.

4 He interpreted outreach to Orthodox churches as a political strategy directed against Russia.

5 He linked Gromyko's January 24 audience with concern over tensions in Eastern Europe.

6 He saw the coming Polish visit and Saint Stanislaus anniversary as powerful symbols of resistance.

7 He predicted an assassination during the visit that would be blamed on the Warsaw government and spark revolt.

8 He warned that such a revolt might accelerate war instead of buying time for American rearmament.

TOPIC 3. UFOs, IFOs, AND RUSSIA'S MASTER SECRET WEAPON.

1 Beter returned to the loud coastal booms known as "air quakes" and rejected the official explanations.

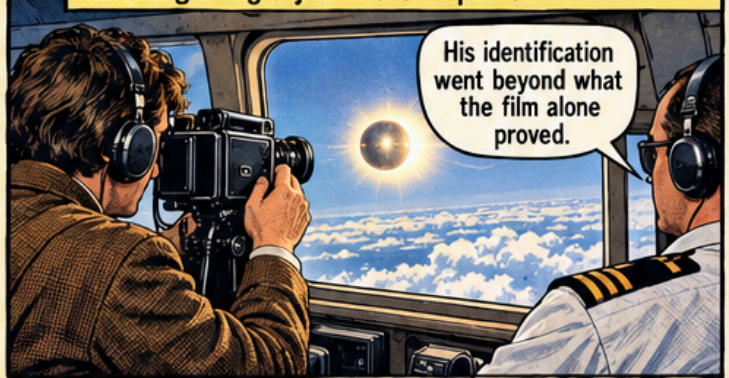

2 He cited an air-quake study, emphasizing events it could not connect with aircraft.

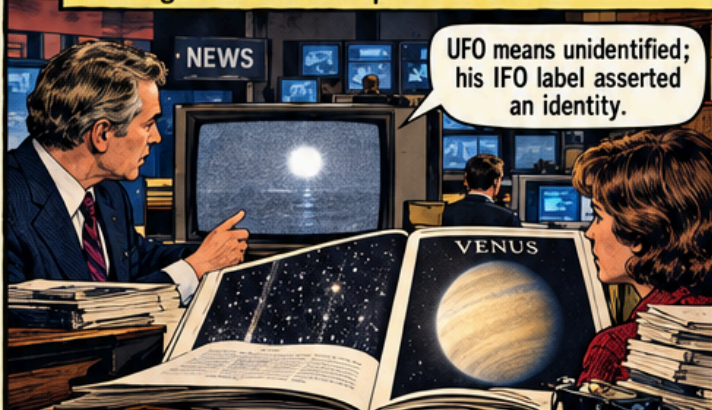

3 He identified the alleged hovering weapons platforms as Soviet Cosmospheres.

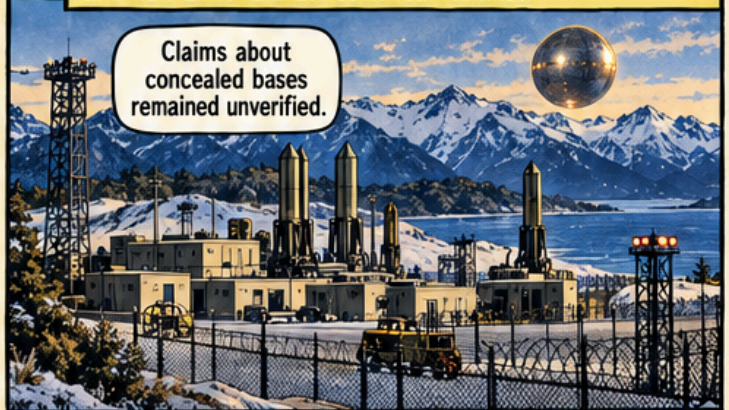

4 He discussed the December 30 New Zealand film and called a glowing object a Cosmosphere.

5 He contrasted broadcast descriptions with explanations involving Venus and atmospheric conditions.

6 He alleged hidden American missile deployments in Australia and New Zealand under Soviet surveillance.

7 He described a proposed American countermeasure intended to disrupt the platforms and their sensors.

8 He called Russia's alleged aiming system 'Psychoenergetic Range Finding', or PRF, and claimed it could defeat interference.
